

WESTERLY

Wednesday evening the members of the Seventh Day Baptist church and their friends met in the church parlors and gave their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Clayton Burdick, a cordial welcome home. About 150 attended. Those who assisted with Rev. and Mrs. Burdick were Miss Frances Burdick, Mrs. Ira B. Crandall, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Land. Cakes, wafers, and punch and ice cream were served. The Misses Ann and Martha Eaton and Mrs. Paul Estey provided the music.

The wedding of Miss Annie R. Marr and Walter Snyder, both of this town, took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McBride, 112 Cooper Hill street, South Manchester, Conn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Chester F. Austin, pastor of the Pentecostal church of South Manchester. Mrs. William McBride was the matron of honor and Fred Church of Hartford was best man. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives, guests being present from Westerly, Hartford and South Manchester. A reception followed the ceremony. The large number of gifts received included china, cut glass, furniture and a bed. Mr. Snyder has been employed at Nash's News Store, having been employed there for the past 20 years. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder left for a motor trip to the White Mountains and upon their return will reside at 13 Lincoln avenue, Pawcatuck.

At Westerly High School, November 3, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., Mary Harris Armour will speak on the Square Deal. She will explain the prohibition amendment.
